Managers' Report:

Violations

- We have now scheduled the next Compliance Committee meeting for Wednesday, October 21, 2026. This was the soonest date that Andy (attorney) could attend. He is coming because Craig Crary's violation will be voted on. We should have enough members to have the meeting. We still need more volunteers...
- Last Monday, I did a site inspection on Sections 1 and 2. I had 17 violations and 5 that I closed that had complied.
- Tuesday, I did a site inspection on Section 3 and had 8 violations.
- Lawn mowing even if vacate lot must be done.

Office

- The office is looking good ...almost there.
- Looking toward our new year, October 1st, Some things we would like to get approved on September 15th and talk about tonight. • HOA Life Portal – each address will have a log in in case you have more than one property. You will get information specifically about that address. Violations, ARC Requests, Pay Storage Fees, Pay fines... Works with Credit Cards and QuickBooks Online. Welcome emails for new residents. Message management/office – Concern Forms. Organization, Efficiently, and Time Saving. Maintenance Request for Common Area concerns. Forms and Documents for review and feedback
- Quick books online will take credit cards with less hassle and less expensive.

Maintenance

- Another week that Angelo has done an awesome.
- Bone Dry Roofing was delayed and are planning on doing the warranty work for leak repairs on tomorrow (Wednesday).
